Chiefly Speaking

“Without community service, we would not have a strong quality of life. It’s important to the person who serves as well as the recipient. It’s the way in which we ourselves grow and develop”-
Dr. Dorothy Height

Brothers,

What does the Order of the Arrow stand for? In retrospect it means Brotherhood of cheerful service. So, that leads us to what does Brotherhood of Cheerful Service mean? To me it means an event where we all can come together as one and help to serve those in need with a smile on our faces even if the task is unpleasant. I encourage all of you to forget about the things that went wrong this weekend and instead enjoy your time serving alongside your fellow brothers. Stop focusing on the negative and look for the positive. Let us serve so that we can grow and develop into the best lodge we can become. A great man named Ed Lacey once told me, “we shouldn’t come for the food we should come because we enjoy serving with others”. I know we can do great things if we do them together!

Yours in Brotherhood,

Christopher Steele

Vice Chief of Administration

Brothers,

I am really excited for Spring Fellowship and the upcoming year. It is always amazing to watch how the candidates come in on Friday and by the end of Saturday, they are changed in character and more importantly, they are our new brothers. I ask everyone to give a warm welcome to all of our candidates when they arrive so you can try to get to know them before they take their oath of silence. I hope all check in goes smoothly and efficiently. I truly cannot wait for Spring Fellowship and the work ahead of us. Good luck to all Ordeal candidates and Brotherhood candidates and if you have any questions for me feel free to ask.

Yours in Service,

Shaun McManus

Vice Chief of Communications

Brothers,

Are you ready? Are you ready for the year that will set the basis for the next 100 years of our lodge and the OA? Will you help me and everyone else make this the best year in our lodges history? I want to make Mowogo one of the best lodges in the Nation and I ask you to help me do that.

As VCC my job is to keep Arrowmen and incoming Arrowmen informed of Lodge Events, Reports, and other misc. information, because of this I am charged with putting together this Newsletter and I am already starting to see our lodge's greatness this year in this issue alone. I would like to thank everyone that contributed an article or any other piece of information that is present here, because without them Mowogo Lodge would not have anything to show for Mowogo's greatness.

Yours in Brotherhood,

Cy Roth

Vice Chief of Indian Affairs

Brothers,

Our lodge had ten youth attend Indian Winter where there were training classes and a powwow. Sadly, the Carolina seminar was canceled due to weather. We have had three training days, and we are starting to work on a new team dance for Conclave. Mowogo Indian Seminar will be coming on April 8th-10th at Camp Rainey Mountain. Join us for crafts, ceremonies, drumming, dancing and much more. The following weekend, April 15-17, Mowogo is hosting Conclave, also at Camp Rainey Mountain.

Yours in Brotherhood,

J.J. Murray

2016 Vice Chief of Indian Affairs

Vice Chief of Membership

Brothers,

Your Lodge Executive Committee has been working tirelessly to prepare for Spring Fellowship and Conclave. Avery Drake is our Lodge Service Chair, will be running our youth service projects, and directing our ordeal candidate crews to work projects during Spring Fellowship and Pre-Camp. If you see Avery, please be sure to thank him for all of the hard work he will be putting in during our two ordeal weekends. Manuel De Armas will continue to serve as our Elangomat Chair, and as usual you will see him running from clan to clan to ensure everyone is on track and to see that our Elangomat Program is running smoothly. Please thank Manuel as well. We had a low turn-out in training new elangomats, so I strongly encourage you to step up, take the training, and serve your lodge come Pre-Camp as an Elangomat.

Lastly, please welcome our new Brothers to the Order of the Arrow!

If you have any feedback about Spring Fellowship, please feel free to contact me directly or via e-mail at lodge.vcm@mowogo.org

Ani-Gatogwewi Chapter

Brothers,

Since December, AGG has conducted 10 unit elections where 26 new candidates were elected. So far we have 1 adult candidate that will be completing his ordeal with us as well. We hosted a multi-unit Arrow of Light/Crossover ceremony for 3 packs in our district where we crossed over 18 cub scouts into boy scouts. In December, we attended a chapter leadership training lead by Cy Roth for all of our 2016 chapter elected positions. We are looking to increase AGG member participation at all lodge events and have a strong attendance at Conclave this year. We are hoping to have a service day at camp rotary in the near future.

Japeechen Chapter

Brothers,

Japeechen Chapter has had an amazing first few months of the year. In the past three months we have had members attend Elangomat Training days, Indian Affairs days, and have had brothers who have attended all of the conclave workdays so far. As spring fellowship is upon us, we continue to encourage all of our brothers to support the lodge and all of its activities including the Elangomat corp and Indian affairs. As of today we have conducted many OA troop elections for the troops in our district and have almost completed them all. With conclave rapidly approaching, our chapter is helping to fill in many of the needed positions in support of this great event. We look forward to seeing all of our fellow brothers at all of the upcoming events.

Jutaculla Chapter

Brothers,

The Jutaculla chapter has been very busy so far this year. We were 100% contacted and scheduled in our elections. We have been helping with conclave workdays and elegomat training. We plan on having a chapter campout sometime this year. We are also starting to have chapter meetings when needed and not every month like we have now. We were in charge of the winter camporee. We did the ceremony and games. Now we are asking if there is any troop that has Indian clothing they are willing to sell or give away. We are going to go to weekends were we can make Indian clothing. We have been busy and are going to still be busy the whole year of 2016.

Elangomat Committee

Brothers,

The Elangomat Corps is in URGENT need of Trained Elangomats. So far this year, The Elangomat corps has had four training dates that have already taken place which were, January 9th, February 13th, February 28th, and March 6th. All brothers will have one last opportunity to become a Trained Elangomat on April 9th from 9 am to 3 pm at Camp Rainey Mountain. This is also the final conclave work weekend, so it'd be a great opportunity to help out the lodge with work projects and also become a Trained Elangomat. It's a "win-win" situation, the lodge gets help preparing for conclave, and you also get your Elangomat Training at the same time. Please step up and serve in one of the most important and crucial lodge positions that exist. Elangomats are the first impression that new candidates get of what the OA and Mowogo Lodge is all about. Many times, it is the Elangomat that makes the difference between those who become passionate about their obligation and those who become sash and dashers. To sign up to get trained, go to <http://vols.pt/hs/Fi5E> and sign up for the April 9th conclave and Elangomat Training workday. In the comments field be sure to type in "Elangomat Training". Becoming an Elangomat is very easy to do and it is open to every person in the lodge. If you have any questions, feel free to email me at Manuel@centurypainting.net. I am looking forward to a successful Pre-Camp and seeing you all there.

Operation Arrow 2017

To continue a tradition that dates back to the 1950 National Scout Jamboree, over 750 youth Arrowmen will answer the call to serve as part of Operation Arrow in 2017 - the largest jamboree staff team ever assembled by the Order of the Arrow!

The OA Service Corps will return in 2017 - its 18th consecutive national jamboree. The Service Corps will help support the jamboree program by providing manpower to service projects all across the Summit Bechtel Reserve. The corps will be divided into several chapters that will be assigned a diverse array of tasks each day. The corps' versatility offers each Arrowman the unique opportunity to see the entire jamboree while exemplifying the OA devotion to 'service with a smile.'

The OA Trek Guides will lead jamboree participants on an all-day adventure beginning at the unit campsite and ending at the highest point at SBR, Garden Ground Mountain. The incredible program and reflection during the day-long Arrowmen-led trek will be a unique addition to the unit's jamboree experience.

The OA Indian Village staff will provide jamboree participants the opportunity to immerse themselves in American Indian history in fun and interactive ways. Working with the Lewis and Clark Trust, staff will teach about craft-making, dance styles and survival methods of different tribes throughout the nation.

For more information and how to register for Operation Arrow staff, please visit <http://oa-bsa.org/jamboree>.

You can also follow Operation Arrow on Twitter @OperationArrow. We hope that you will #FuelScoutingsAdventure along with us in 2017!

Lodge Adviser Minute

Dear Brothers,

I heard a story once about an old hound dog that had a very keen nose. One day the hunter took this hound out on the trail to hunt down a mountain lion. The hound dog quickly struck a track and was on the trail – fixed and set with the purpose of catching the lion. Soon he came to a place where a fox had crossed the trail, and the hound dog decided to follow the fox instead. A short time later, a rabbit crossed the trail of the fox, and again the hound dog changed direction. Why should he chase a fox or a lion, he thought, when a rabbit is easier to catch? The hunter had been pleased in the past when he had caught the fox and the rabbit. Eventually the hunter caught up to the dog and found him barking down a hole in the ground. The hound had brought to bay a field mouse instead of a mountain lion.

What about you? What about us? Have we ever set out on a noble trail only to find ourselves slowly distracted from our initial goal? Are we able to follow the course that we strike, or are we sidetracked by easier trails that cross our path from time to time? Do we sometimes justify that the sidetrack is just as noble a path as the one we first set?

We are lucky, for although our path may be a lonely one it is not one that goes unmarked. Fifteen blazes line the path that brought us here. As we travel this path, we are told that the trail will become rougher, steeper, and fainter. In other words, it we are told that it will be hard for us to stay on the path. There will be things that distract us from staying the course. These may seem noble at first, but in the end lead to the field mouse. One blaze, by itself, is a small lonely fire and we are told we need a “brighter fire”. What is this brighter fire? Could it be that when all fifteen flames deep inside each of us are bound together in Brotherhood that our common goal, intent, and purpose that these flames become the indomitable spirit of scouting to light our path?

As we start out on a new century of the Order of the Arrow, I encourage each of you to stay the course. Strengthen the ties of brotherhood. Build upon the fire of cheerfulness. Ease the burdens from the shoulders of your fellow scouts. When you have done these things, I promise, you will stay the course and in the process you will see the true meaning of the Arrow.
